REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS:

The following items MUST be included to be considered for Acceptance:

- Exhibitors are selected by the photos they provide, therefore quality photographs are important. FOUR photographs of current work (listed with title, medium, size, price, and date completed) and ONE photo of your indoor booth display. You may also email images in .jpg format
- Completed and signed application with entry fee
- Artist statement and brief description of work

RULES:

- Artists are expected to remain at their booths or provide a knowledgeable attendant as MTCA does not provide booth sitters
- Exhibitors are responsible for loading in, setting up, and loading out all display materials and artwork
- Display locations will be pre-assigned. Exhibitors must keep their displays within the assigned space
- Takedown of displays on Saturday, November 17 may not begin prior to 5:00pm

RESTRICTIONS:

- The MTCA is a unique, multilevel historic theater. Please be aware of the following policies and restrictions: Exhibit booth spaces are irregular sizes and shapes, not the standard 8x10 square booth.
- The MTCA has one loading dock with a hydraulic lift and one elevator that provides access to all floors.
